Monthly Volunteer Projects- Isabella said that our monthly project was the Saint Patrick's Day Dinner. Mandy described the event, and mentioned that the sign-up would be coming out soon. Also, Mandy mentioned that our Soup Kitchen Volunteer Project, in April, was still happening, and informed us of the roles that would take place inside the project. Mandy also reminded the Board that they should always wear their YAB shirt and their hair back for both events.

Aquatics Facility- The March 10th City Council Work Session was moved to April 14th, so the board has more time to gain support and develop ideas.

Joe Stevens, the Director of Parks and Recreation, passed along a magazine called Recreation Management that shared some ideas of what the aquatics facility could include, and some of the price ranges.

Isabella brought some ideas, not dissimilar to Mr. Stevens', which included some amenities that the pool could have as well as advertising opportunities for local businesses.

Many ideas were discussed, including:

- Nite at the Pool
- Food Truck Night
- Basketball
- Ideas of APEX in Arvada
- Mining Equipment Jumping
- Indoor vs. Outdoor
- Half Indoor and Half Outdoor
- Indoor to Outside Slides
- Outside to Inside Slides
- Roundabout Entrances
- Lazy Rivers
- Lazy Rivers that Transport You to the Different Pools
- Crowdedness of Memory Square
- (High) Diving Boards
- Rope Swing
- Water Guns
- Ziplines
- Slides
- Kids' Games,
- Splash Pools
- Movie Night
- Open Space for Picnics
- Bocce Ball
- Sand Volleyball
- Food Sales
- Sauna/Steam Room
- Lockers: Outdoor vs. Indoor, Free with Your Own Lock
- Separation of Pools (Senior/Therapeutic/Kids/Lap)
- Dry Playground
- Olympic Sized Pool
- Multi-Purpose Field
- Soccer Nets
- Deep to Shallow Progression
- Obstacle Course
- Soft Grass
- Trees
- Cornhole
- Zorb Balls

- Climbing Wall Next to the Pool
- Swim-Up Bars
- Concessions
- Sunscreen Sales

Jay discussed the issue of an indoor facility, and said that he believes that an outdoor seasonal facility would work best.

Funding Requests for 5-Year Capital Improvements – Jay told the Board to let City Council know what the Board wants to be improved and to e-mail any ideas to Mandy. YAB members noted:

- Pavilion by Cottonwood Park needs to be improved, like the bathrooms.
- Another way into Monarch High School.

Annual Meeting With City Council – Isabella reminded the Board that everyone needs to talk on a slide to City Council, which the Board will be presenting on April 28th, 2015.

Other Boards and Commissions – Madison went to the City Council Meeting on March 3rd, and listened to the Council talk about the McCaslin Small Area Plan.

Eyes and Ears – None

Comments from Liaisons – Mandy thanked the Board for all of their ideas for the Aquatic Facility.

Discussion Items for Next Meeting – Creation of portfolio for the City Council Meeting, Soup Kitchen information.

Adjourn – The meeting was adjourned at 7:55.
